JEWELRY & NEW COLLECTIONS

We hope you had a wonderful holiday season and your new year will be happy! All of us at Americana Indian Shows would like to thank you for your support of American Indian arts and artists. We look forward to bringing you the best of the Southwest in 2012!

We had a great time over the holiday season buying from many different artists and the inventory for our 2012 show series is looking very good. Alton Bedonie kept busy designing and creating some amazing turquoise and sterling silver pendants, earrings, rings and bracelets for us and we're proud to say we had some input in the design process.

Bruce Hodgins provided us with some incredible pieces, including two hand-drawn silver link bracelets (unlike any you've seen!) as well as a beautiful Red Fox agate pendant. Bruce stated that this stone is no longer being mined in its native Argentina, and that there are currently no other sources of this stone to be found – it's so unique. The search is still on, but it's doubtful if any will be found any time soon, if ever.

Frank Tom and Mary Tom both stopped by in December and we purchased a total of ten exquisite necklaces from them. Leon Martinez provided us with eleven gorgeous bracelets, including one from his son Jess. Like many Native American artists, talent runs in the family! The Martinez bracelets are designed in a 1940-50's vintage style and are set with gorgeous stones, most of which are Pilot Mountain turquoise. We have asked all of these artists (along with Kee Yazzie and Lionel Bahe) to create some buckles and bolos for us and hope to have some by show time.

There have been several buying trips to Gallup and Zuni to get the latest and greatest in jewelry and fetish carvings. While at a trading post in Zuni Ruddell Laconsello stopped by with a gorgeous cardinal pendant made from coral and sterling silver. In addition to obtaining that superb work of art, we also obtained several pieces from Harlan Coonsis, including a beautiful silver knifewing dancer pendant inlaid with Sugilite and angel skin coral. Other artists represented at this show include Charles Loloma, Carl & Irene Clark, Brian Clark, Sherian Honhongva (niece of Charles Loloma) and many others.

In addition to all the new works we purchased, we still have many great pieces from private collections we obtained over the last several months.

For collectors of books on Native American arts, a new book has been published: "Native American Bolo Ties: Vintage and Contemporary Artistry" by Diana F Pardue and Norman L Sandfield. We will have a copy in our showroom for you to peruse.

There are so many spectacular works of art to see this show series – Santo Domingo, Navajo, Zuni and Hopi works are all represented. Artists have been very busy this winter!

We look forward to seeing you all there!
Thanks, Eric

KACHINAS & WOODEN SCULPTURES

During the month of August, there are two significant American Indian art competitions. They are the Gallup Inter-Tribal Ceremonial and the Santa Fe Indian Market. Artists will spend several months working a single piece for entry. Winning here marks a milestone in an artist's career. We are pleased to announce that Raymond Chee won awards at both competitions. We are doubly pleased as we have purchased pieces from him over the past 15 years, and he has promised to continue selling to us at the same pricing structure and not increase them despite his recent accolades.

We have also been fortunate enough to obtain, from a private collection, a magnificent carving by Neil David Sr. The carving depicts a comical Koshari (clown) trying to keep the hotdog he is attempting to eat away from an over enthusiastic dog. Neil David Sr. is one of the most respected as well as one of the most award winning Hopi carvers, who's work is much sought after by collectors.

Don't miss this opportunity to drop by and see if any of our selection of sculptures by this multi-award winning artist captures your interest. There will also be a variety of work by other artists such as Marlin Pinto, Laurence Dallas, Sterling McRae, Wilmer Kaye and Silas Roy to name a few.

POTTERY, FETISHES & STONE SCULPTURES

We have an outstanding selection of Pueblo and Navajo pottery. There are some very affordable Hopi pieces from Marian and Adelle Nampeyo that are hand coiled, naturally fired and hand painted. We will also have a great selection of hand etched Navajo horsehair pottery.

We have one piece of pottery from Dorothy Torivio who recently passed away (April 2011).

There are hand sculpted alabaster works of Jemez Artist Marvin Toya ranging from two and three inches tall to up to a foot or more. The color of this stone varies and provides a wonderful contrast when displayed next to other Southwestern art. In addition, I asked Marvin to carve some different animals from what he normally crafts. Stop by and take a moment to check out this new series of stone sculptures!

If you are a collector or are looking for a small personal gift for a friend, coworker or loved one, check out our case-and-a-half of Fetish carvings. From $12.00 and up, there is something for everyone: bears by Jeff & Emery Eriacho, Corn Maidens by Stewart & Vicki Quandelacey as well as an assortment of other animals by Ruben Najera, Karen Zunie, Lance and Wilford Cheama and many others.

ART AND SANDPAINTINGS

Many years ago with the help of Wayne, we began showing the work of Paul Surber, an incredible water-colorist. While going through our back stock recently, I found two of his originals and they are superb pieces of work. If your passion is landscapes, then these pieces are for you! Both will be matted and framed for this show. We also have a new, original oil painting by Carol Lee Thompson that is superb and of collector's quality. Our sandpainting inventory, as always, will consist of the smaller high quality pieces ranging in size from 6X6 to 12X12. As well, we will have a fine selection of larger competition quality pieces by such artist as Joe Ben Jr., Baatsoslanii Joe, Sammy Myerson, Bilson Kee and Tom Clark to name a few. Please remember, if you are looking for something specific just bend our ears and we will do what we can to find it for you. Thanks again for a great 2011!!

RUGS

2011 was a fantastic year and all of us wish to thank you for your continued support and your gracious comments about our rug inventory throughout the year. The Malone family has also asked that we pass on their thanks and they all look forward to another great year. That said, we will soon be heading back over to New Mexico to restock our inventory. As promised, we will continue to bring fine weavings from the Malone family private collection as well as weavings that have been recently loomed. Bill and his family have always been great about setting aside "new treasures" for us to bring to you by such weavers as Mary Baldwin, Sharon Bahe, Wilson Bekay and Anna Clyde, just to name a few. Oh, and one more note of thanks You really did help us this past year by taking the time to tell us and show us what you are looking for in Navajo weavings. There truly is a sea of great weavings out there and that can make it very difficult to choose what to bring and what to leave behind. Your input has been and always will be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

We are happy to announce that we now have the capability to deliver your newsletter by email! For those who prefer to receive email rather than paper, you may sign up for e-newsletters at www.americana.net. Please be sure to add info@americana.net to your trusted senders, or your newsletter may get blocked by your ISP's spam filter. Also be sure to check your spam folder. Note that you will receive a confirmation email asking that you verify you subscribed; simply click the link to confirm and you're done!

Once you begin to receive your newsletter via email, drop us a line at info@americana.net and ask that paper delivery be discontinued. If at any time your email becomes undeliverable we will add you back to the "snail mail" list.

Interesting Stuff and Questions About E-Newsletters:

Why is my entire address required when signing up?

-without this info we won't know which show site email to send you. After all, getting overwhelmed with useless email is no fun; you wouldn't want to receive emails for shows not in your area (but if you do, drop us a line and we'll be happy to oblige!).

Why "snail mail" newsletter if I signed up for e-newsletter?

-While email is efficient and environmentally friendly, it's not a perfect science. There are many factors that can cause an email to "bounce" (which means you didn't receive it). To be sure you don't miss out on any of our exciting shows we will send a paper newsletter until you confirm email is working for you and ask that we discontinue paper. If at any time your email becomes undeliverable, we'll return you to the "snail mail" system.

What if I no longer want email?

-you can unsubscribe any time by clicking the "unsubscribe" link at the bottom of the e-newsletter, or drop us a line at info@americana.net and let us know you'd rather receive a paper newsletter again and we'll take care of it for you.

How is my name & address used?

-we value your privacy and take this responsibility very seriously. We never sell your information to anyone. Any information submitted for email or "snail mail" is kept confidential and used only to send you notices of upcoming shows or special events.
